Property Description

Braga is considered spirited, dynamic and cosmopolitan, and is the third-largest city of Portugal. The investment in the real estate market is growing exponentially in the area. In 2019 Braga was considered the third “Best city to do Business in” and the third “Best city to live in”, just behind Lisbon and Oporto.

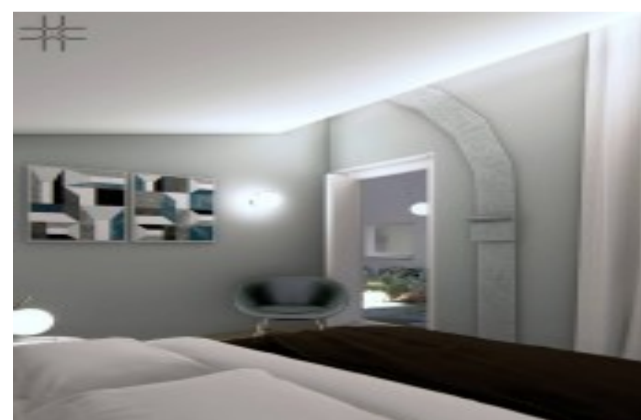

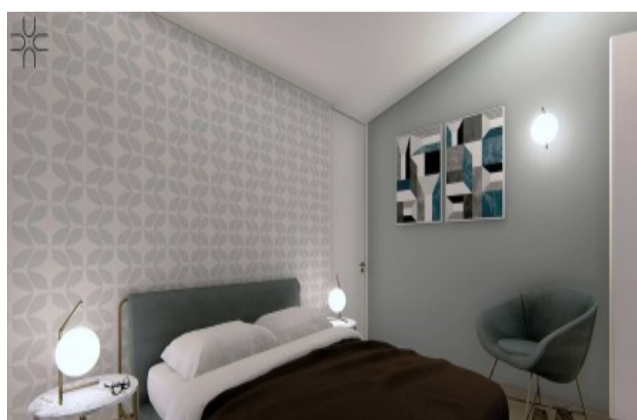

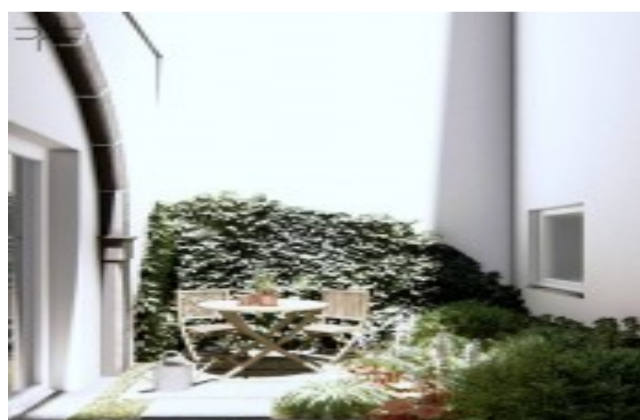

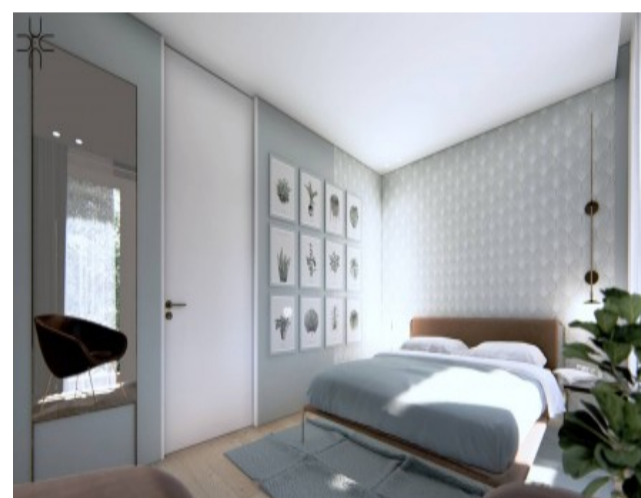

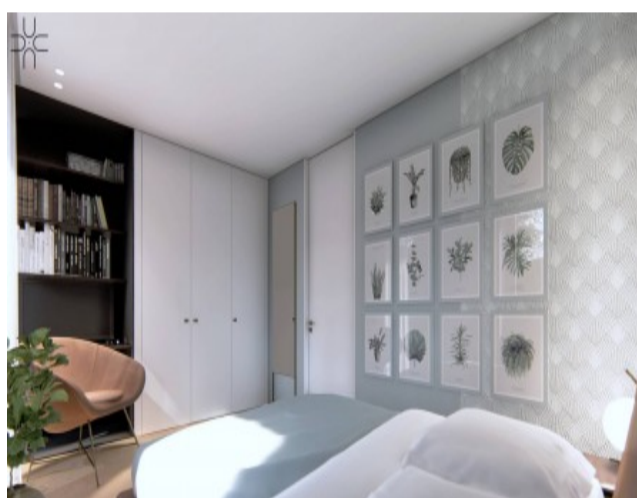

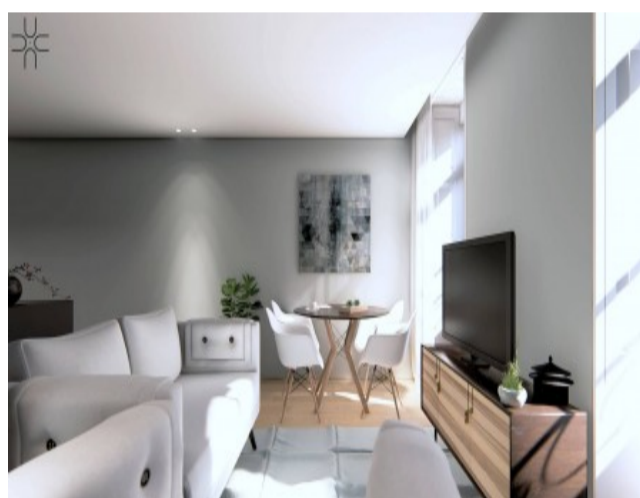

The history, charm, and cosines of the city allied to its powerful industrial and commercial position, attracted many investors from abroad. It becomes day by day a very interesting place to invest, mainly for golden visa purposes.

Located in Braga’s Historic Center, this development offers seven apartments.

Five of these apartments will have a private patio each and the other two will benefit from spacious balconies.
