Cascais and its surrounding areas have been well established hot-spots for family relocation for many years. Not only does it lean on the beautiful coastline of the Portuguese Riviera, The region is a historically cultural, wealthy and noble part of the country.

The train line allows a fast and easy commute to Cais do Sodre which is Lisbon city centre's old port. To commute the entire line it takes just 40 minutes and stops at various beach locations en route.

Cascais is largely an English speaking area that welcomes foreign families with its inclusive community feel and Portuguese hospitality. Almost all of the International Schools of Greater Lisbon are located in this region.

Cascais also neighbours The Sintra-Cascais Natural Park which is one of the 13 Natural Parks of Portugal. While only established in 1994 as a Natural Park by the Portuguese Government, it has been protected since 1981. The park offers 145km<sup>2</sup> of Mountains, streams, historic ruins, castles, bike-paths and villages.

The town of Sintra attracts millions of tourists a year. Its castles and towers stand high, offering magnificent views of the region.
