Property Description

The apartment is located in a contemporary neighborhood of Lisbon. This area was totally regenerated for the world exhibition of the oceans in 1998. Notable for it's modern and luminous architecture, with countless parks connected with the river.

Although it is the calmest, most family-oriented space in Lisbon, this area has some of the biggest attractions in the city, the Oceanarium, Museu do Conhecimento, Altice Arena.

This apartment features a large living room with 45 square meters, two bedrooms, one of which a suite with 21 square meters including a closet.

The finishes are of excellent quality. Air conditioning is built-in, surround sound and central vacuum as well. It includes parking for two cars and storage with 15 square meters.
