Property Description

Portugal Homes present the new D2 VISA product: Mátria Co-Working €280K Investment Opportunity in the city centre of Lisbon!

Mátria Co-Working will be fully refurbished to feature a state-of-the-art co-working property development with over sixteen luxury amenities, from concierge services, a coffee shop, acoustic meeting rooms, private parking, terraces, a gymnasium, and change rooms.

Exclusive Investment package of €280,000, where investors will own a company with shares of the building with a 4% guaranteed return.

Mátria Co-Working Investment Package qualifies for the D2 VISA and will get you a 5 year residency, allowing you to travel freely in the Schengen Area, currently the quickest, safest and cheapest pathway to Portuguese citizenship.

Mátria Co-Working is situated 1km away from the famous Avenida da Liberdade, known as the Champs-Elysees of Lisbon. The notable boulevard runs north for 1.6 km, from Restauradores Square to Marquês de Pombal Square, and is more than 90m wide. An elegant avenue with fountains, café tables shaded by trees, cobblestone pavement decorated with unique patterns, Avenida da Liberdade is the most expensive street to rent or buy property on in Portugal making the commercial building we present to you highly desirable.

Why Invest:

- €280,000 Investment Package
- 4% Guaranteed Return for 5yrs.
- Optional guaranteed buy back of your investment

This development will be extremely attractive to businesses looking for office space in central Lisbon but also very attractive to Digital Nomads and new Start-up businesses due to Lisbon being one of the best tech talent hubs In Europe.

Lisbon hosts the largest technology conference in the world, Web Summit which connects CEOs, founders, global leaders of companies, start-ups, influential investors and leading journalists. These events are packed with new ideas and fresh perspectives placed perfectly for any start-up size. These also give extra visibility to emerging talent, for example, machine demos, a perfect chance for investors, and new players, among others to meet and share new tech ideas.

The city welcomes more than 70,000 tech enthusiasts, CEOs, and start-up investors to join the capital city of Portugal, one of Europe's leading tech events that have called Lisbon home for over six years, after its move from Dublin to Portugal back in 2016. This pivotal transition brought much attention to Portugal, promoting a rise in the country's economic growth, and drawing global technology companies to open businesses and start-ups that created various tech job opportunities in the capital.

Many big brands from Mercedes to Google opened new technology-focused hubs; Portugal as a country has several policies that make it more friendly to run a business through its cities. These companies create platforms for innovation from local talent and attract outside talent.

Why Lisbon:

Why not would be an easier question! The rising star of Europe, Lisbon is a stunning coastal capital with a magnetic appeal for tourists, ex-pats and investors alike. Three-time World Travel Awards winner for Best Destination and Best City Break, and a 2020 nominee in five categories, this stunning location boasts an excellent quality of life, bustling tourist trade and a property market which is ripe for investment and rich in incentives. With so many natural hotspots and fascinating landmarks, there's plenty for a curious explorer to do in Lisbon.

Buildings such as the Cathedral and Jerónimos Monastery are remarkable not only for their stunning visages but also for their incredible pasts – both have played significant roles in Lisbon's history and have survived earthquakes. With stunning districts such as Alfama and Chiado, tourists can explore the Lisbon way of life, soaking up the local and authentic culture, taking in some Fado music and enjoying classic Portuguese dishes.

The local cuisine is always enticing, and a quick skim of any restaurant menu reveals why – you'll typically be tempted by a range of seafood caught on the Lisbon coast, fresh vegetables, delicate pastries and free-flowing wine – in fact, of Portugal's total of 27 Michelin star restaurants, 8 are in Lisbon alone!
